Event Format

- The candidates will have a maximum of three minutes for a scripted presentation and approximately eight more minutes for Q&A. A total of approximately twelve consecutive minutes for each candidate.
- Presentation order of City Council candidates. Position 2 followed by Position 3
 - 1- Wolfe, Philip
 - 2- Fish, Nick (Nancy Becker representing Mr. Fish)
 - 3- DeGraw, Julia
 - 4- Williams, Felicia
 - 5- Valderrama, Andrea
 - 6- Smith, Loretta
 - 7- Hardesty, Jo Ann
 - 8- Emmons, Stuart
- All candidates will answer this prepared question (maximum three minute answer)

“Given the strong concerns of the residents of the Rose City Park neighborhood as documented in the Neighborhood Association survey regarding the rezoning of 200+ properties within the boundaries of the neighborhood from a current R5 designation to an R2.5 designation; and concerns for the proposed new “a” overlay that allows duplexes everywhere and triplexes on corner lots, what is your position on the issue? “

- During the remainder of their allotted time candidates will answer questions from the audience
- Audience members will have 30 seconds to ask one question only-no comments or follow-up questions. After asking your question please step aside to allow the next person to advance to the designated location to ask questions.
- Candidates have a maximum of two minutes to answer a question, unless extra time is granted at the discretion of the RCPNA Chairwoman
- During the Q&A all the questions asked of all the candidates will be recorded and presented in the following days to all the candidates. This affords the opportunity for all the candidates to answer all the questions asked by the audience and to return their answers to RCPNA. The final answers will be uploaded to the RCPNA website for viewing.
